Q4 Please indicate your assessment of each hazard based on severity. Please use the following table to determine your answers. Low - Mitigation and contingency planning is advisory in nature. Examples of losses can include one or several of the following: treatable first aid injuries, complete shutdown of facilities and critical services for one week or less and/or less than 10% of property in affected area(s) is severely damaged. Moderate - Mitigation and contingency planning requires prompt action. Examples of losses can include one or several of the following: severe injury/illness, complete shutdown of facilities and critical services for > 14 days, and/or more that 25% of property in affected area(s) is severely damaged. High - High risk condition with highest priority for mitigation and contingency planning. Examples of losses can include one or several of the following: fatalities, complete shutdown of facilities and critical services for > 30 days, and/or more than 50% of property in affected area(s) is severely damaged.
