

Bylaws and Procedures for the York Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (YAMPO)

I. MPO OBJECTIVE

A. Name:

York Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (YAMPO).

B. Purpose:

On August 24th, 1964, the York Area Transportation Study (now YAMPO) was established, by a Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) Charter, to conduct a continuing, comprehensive, and cooperative process for transportation planning, programming, and decision-making. The bodies established in this document are meant to serve the YAMPO, which covers the entire political boundary of York County.

The Bylaws and Procedures will serve as the document in identifying current YAMPO policies and procedures and will be revised annually or per change in federal regulation and/or state policy. YAMPO activities to be undertaken include developing a Unified Planning Work Program (UPWP), developing a Metropolitan Transportation Plan (MTP), approving a short-range Transportation Improvement Program (TIP), carrying out an effective public involvement process, collecting and analyzing data, conducting needs and feasibility studies, and more.

The primary members of the YAMPO are the York County Planning Commission (YCPC), PennDOT, Susquehanna Regional Transportation Authority Board (SRTA), Legislative appointments, City of York, Township and Borough appointments. In addition, the Bylaws identify procedures to follow in completing official MPO business.

C. Committees:

The York Area MPO is required to have a Policy Committee. This is a requirement by the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 23, Planning Assistance, and Standards, Metropolitan Planning Organization: Designations and Redesignation (23 CFR sec. 450.306), For the YAMPO, this committee is called the Coordinating Committee. YAMPO may choose to establish other committees, at its discretion, to enhance its operations. The MPO has and has declared it the Technical Committee and Transit Committee. Other Committees are thoroughly covered in this document under Section IV, item G.

 The legislative delegation vote is self-selected, and approved by the York County Delegation of Legislators.

+ Process for Municipal Representative selections:

Qualifications for Municipal Representative: Shall be Municipal Staff, Persons appointed to municipal bodies or elected positions within a Municipality. Contracted staff or personnel shall not be eligible for this position.

Step One: YCPC solicits from municipalities nominations for Municipal representation

Step Two: YCPC reviews nominations for eligibility and forwards all qualified nominations to the York County Municipal Administrators Association for a recommendation to the Coordinating Committee.

Step Three: The YAMPO discusses, nominates and approves the Primary and Alternate representatives. Should any or all the recommendations not be approved, the YCPC, using the Process for Municipal Representatives selections, will re-solicit for the recommendation or recommendations not approved.

Alternates will be selected from the same process and will consist of the same number of municipalities of 1 township and 1 borough respectively. Alternates will only vote in the event of an absence of the Primary representative. If multiple alternates are appointed, a voting sequence will be established.

In addition, for the purpose of maintaining a quorum, if no municipal representative is available then the YCPC Current Municipal Planner who is assigned to the municipality who is unable to attend the meeting shall serve and vote as directed by the Primary member.

Mid-Term Appointment Procedures for Municipal Representatives:

Primary Representative: If a vacancy occurs during the primary's term, the first designated alternate would be offered to fill the vacancy. If the alternate accepts, the YCPC will proceed to Step Two (nominations will be from the previous municipal submission) in the Process for Municipal Representatives selections to replace the alternate. If alternate declines, the YCPC will follow the process for replacing the primary representative as set forth in Step Two (using the nominations from the previous municipal submissions) Process for Municipal Representatives selections.

Designated Alternate Representative: If a vacancy occurs during the alternates term, the YCPC shall follow the procedures set forth in Step Two (using the nominations from the previous municipal submissions) Process for Municipal Representatives selections to replace the alternate.

B. Technical Committee Meetings:

The Technical Committee shall hold meetings as necessary. Meetings, unless otherwise noted, shall be held on the first Thursday of the month. These meetings shall be advertised in the York Daily Record, York Dispatch, Hanover Evening Sun & The Patriot-News (Harrisburg). Meeting notices and related materials shall be provided to all members of the Technical Committee no less than five (5) working days prior to all meetings. Draft meeting minutes will be available for review and comment within fifteen (15) working days, as indicated in the current UPWP, at the York County Planning Commission. Hard copies will also be mailed in conjunction with the next meeting notice.

C. Technical Committee Voting:

A quorum shall consist of five voting members or their alternate/proxy representation. A simple majority of the entire voting membership (five votes out of eight votes) is necessary to approve a measure.

D. Attendance:

Attendance at the Technical Committee meetings is very important. If a committee voting member misses three consecutive regular scheduled meetings, his or her membership on the Committee will be reevaluated.

IV. TRANSIT COMMITTEE

The Susquehanna Regional Transportation Authority Board (SRTA) shall be the recommending body to the Coordinating Committee for all transit specific items, issues, and topics. This committee will operate under the procedures set forth by the SRTA Board.

V. COORDINATING & TECHNICAL COMMITTEE

A. Term of Technical and Coordinating Committee Membership:

The term for all non-designated voting members shall be four (4) years (starting January 2017), after which, all members wishing to remain on the committee must bring documentation from the Official body reaffirming their appointment.

B. Technical and Coordinating Committee Officers:

At the first meeting of each state fiscal year, the voting membership shall elect a Chairperson and Secretary. The selection process shall follow Roberts Rules of Order.

Voting members may hold only one executive position at a time. A Chairperson may hold the Chair for two consecutive fiscal years only.

The Chairperson of a committee has the duty of administrating the meeting. A Chairperson will open and moderate all discussion that transpires during the meeting. The Secretary has the duty of ensuring records of all proceedings of the organization are kept, and that meeting notices are sent to all members to keep the official membership and alternate roll and to acquire signatures required for any action that the committee may take. Further elaboration of rules for the Chairperson and Secretary of committees may be found in Roberts Rules of Order.

Vacancies in office shall be filled at the next scheduled meeting by regular election procedures. The order of Meeting Chair is as follows: 1) Chairperson, 2) Secretary, 3) Chairperson alternate, 4) Secretary alternate. Any voting member shall be eligible to hold a Chair. The Secretary shall always be a voting member as well.

C. Proof of Proxy for Coordinating and Technical Committees

Proof of proxy shall be provided in writing from the official body and signed by the primary to the Chairperson before the meeting if the individual is not an official alternate. Proxies have the same voting privileges as their primary.

D. Meetings:

All regular and special meetings of the YAMPO shall be open to the public in accordance with The Federal Sunshine Act (5 U.S.C. 552b, Open Meetings). The minutes and all materials presented to the YAMPO at such meetings shall be public record and shall be available for review on the YCPC website (<http://www.ycpc.org/>)(www.ycpc.org) and in the YCPC offices (100 West Market Street, Suite 201, York, Pa 17401). All meetings will be advertised in the York Daily Record, York Dispatch, Hanover Evening Sun & The Patriot-News (Harrisburg) with at least one-week notice. Meetings shall be open and accessible to the general public, including persons with disabilities. The YAMPO shall conform to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1991. Meetings shall also conform to the twelfth edition of Roberts

Rules of Order, Newly Revised (RRONR). A copy of RRONR shall be available at all regularly scheduled meetings and special meetings upon request.

Joint Meetings: During joint meetings, a quorum will be met by the Coordinating Committee members. When a vote is called for at these meetings only Coordinating Voting members shall vote. Discussion before a vote will allow Technical members the chance to express their opinions before a vote commences. Refer to Section G for meetings held virtually..

E. Special Meetings:

These may be called by the chairperson or any voting member may petition the chairperson for a special meeting when formal action is required. A minimum ten (10) day notice shall be provided to all voting members of the MPO and member alternates.

F. Telephone/E-mail Balloting:

The York County Planning Commission (YCPC) staff shall conduct all telephone/e-mail balloting for the YAMPO Committees. This balloting process shall be conducted only for regular YAMPO business items.

The YCPC staff shall first contact (via telephone or e-mail service) voting members of the appropriate committee(s) to determine what day and time they are available to vote on an MPO issue. A meeting quorum shall be recorded by the YCPC staff for a vote to be held on a particular day. Once a quorum is established, the committee members shall be notified of the specific date and time of the ballot.

Ballots may be cast via Electronic Mail (e-mail) or telephone service. Information on which to be voted shall be submitted to the voting members ninety-six (96) hours in advance of the telephonic balloting. Information on which to be voted shall be submitted through either the U. S. Postal Service, electronic mail, or facsimile transmission (Fax). If, for some reason, a quorum is not available that day, then the telephone balloting shall be postponed until such time is suitable for such action to occur.

The balloting will conclude at 4:30 P.M. If voting members have not cast a vote by 3:00 P.M., the YCPC staff will attempt to contact those individuals between the hours of 3:00 P.M. and 4:30 P.M.

If action is to be taken on an issue by both YAMPO Committees, then the following procedure shall be undertaken:

- Step One: Coordinating Secretary will determine if a telephone/email ballot is allowed for that action;
- Step Two: Information on which to be voted will be submitted to the Technical Committee ninety-six (96) hours in advance of the balloting;
- Step Three: The YCPC staff holds the balloting and records the results;
- Step Four: If the matter is defeated by the Technical Committee, then the item will not be advanced for consideration by the Coordinating Committee. If the Technical Committee approved the item by quorum vote, then the YCPC staff shall repeat Step Two and Step Three with the Coordinating Committee. This action shall occur twenty-four (24) hours after the Technical Committee balloting.

The results of the telephonic balloting shall be affirmed at the next regularly-scheduled YAMPO Committee meeting or meetings. Ballots shall be affirmed by committee quorum.

At the request of non-voting members, carbon copies of all telephone/email ballot correspondences will be delivered to the appropriate parties.

G. Virtual Meetings

When necessary or appropriate, meetings shall be held employing an electronic or virtual medium, such as Zoom[®] or Microsoft Teams[®].

The York County Planning Commission (YCPC) staff shall prepare and include with the agenda an electronic link for members to access the meeting site. The YCPC staff shall make accommodation (e.g., designated telephone number) for members and attendees who cannot access the virtual medium.

Each meeting shall be opened by a roll call taken by the YCPC staff to determine whether a quorum is present. A YCPC staff member will maintain the admissions to a secure chat room for the public to participate in the virtual meeting.

The agenda and meeting materials shall be displayed on the main meeting screen for Committee review during the virtual meeting.

H. Special Study Committees:

Additional committees (i.e. working group, taskforce, study group) may be formed when the use of the Technical Committee or Transit Committee for specific projects is not suitable. The Coordinating Committee shall approve any additional committees. The YCPC shall recommend the membership of committees for approval to the MPO. The MPO will then discuss, if necessary and approval a membership. These committees shall be formed through approval at regularly scheduled meetings. Special study committees are for projects or studies which have MPO funding and will remain in existence through the length of the study or project. The committees will give progress reports to the YAMPO at regularly scheduled meetings.

The Technical and Transit committees have the ability to create a working group to complete assigned tasks from the Coordinating Committee. These working groups will only report to Technical or Transit committees. Recommendations to Coordinating Committee must come directly from either the Technical or Transit committee.

I. Updating the Bylaws and Procedures:

The YAMPO shall review the bylaws on an annual basis.

Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed at any meeting of the YAMPO Coordinating meeting after they have been submitted in writing to the Chairperson or his/her empowered designee of the YAMPO. The Secretary of the YAMPO Coordinating Committee and his/her assigned staff shall mail to each YAMPO Coordinating Committee member a copy of the proposed amendment to the Bylaws at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting where a vote of approval is taken. Amendments must be approved by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the voting members of the YAMPO Coordinating Committee. At the discretion of the YAMPO Coordinating Committee Chairperson, the YAMPO Technical Committee may evaluate and provide recommendations to the proposed amendment(s).

J. Bylaw Document Availability:

This legal document shall be present for immediate review at all regularly scheduled meetings and special meetings upon request.
